

FOR MODEL RAILROADS

WHERE: Stroudsburg Intermediate School, Chippenfield Drive, Stroudsburg

HOW MUCH: $4, 12 and under free with an adult

WHO: The Pocono Rail Historical Society, which meets at the Tobyhanna Railroad Station. The society, a non-profit organization, has been renovating the station and creating a railroad museum there. Tobyhanna station is a destination point for rail excursions run by Steamtown in Scranton.

als. These items are in several gauges including G gauge, which is good for garden railroading; O gauge Lionel-type trains; S gauge American Flyers; HO gauge, which are more realistic models about half the size of O trains' and N gauge, the smallest. Also books on model railroading as well as books on real railroads past and present. There will also be real railroad items, such as lanterns and dining car silverware and china. Operating layouts in O, HO and N gauges will on display.

INFORMATION: (570) 424-9691 or (610) 381-5176. ♦

STEVE HOLLANDER

A team of 12 skydivers and two videographers formed this VT memorial to the victims of the Virginia Tech massacre during a free fall Sunday at Stroudsburg-Pocono Airport.